Flowers of ideas

Dedication

To whom with me a partner in earth in the water in the air all my flowers fruits of love and affection fruits of life and humanity flowers of my thoughts I dedicate it to you

Ali Alqaseer

Introduction

On the banks of affection sat our pens to write about beauty our hearts are full of hope to be as we should be brothers friends beloved our table full of love our school is humanity

Ali Alqaseer

Flower No. 1 in the garden of ideas

Traditions is the plural of tradition

It is a behavior that has images in the interior and apparent to each of us its origin is related to the environment in which we are because natural factors have an impact in the construction of personality and human nature especially water, soil and air

These diverse traditions grow in societies and bequeathed by generations, and develop or sometimes disappear.

In our world, the great or the small one, within the modern means of transport, movement and communication,

these traditions combine to generate love, humanity and friendship.

We are partners in land, air and water

We differ in languages, colors and ideas

Our degrees of consciousness are not equal

Though, we look for ways to meet and progress, making of the smile, a goal we sow on the mouth of time and start with love for all, and succeed in presenting what we like to others.

Flower No. 2 in the garden of ideas

Past, present and future

The past is dead, but it has an impact among us.

The present is a live we live with.

The future is not born yet, but we make it.

So, we have to understand the past to improve the building of the present for shining future.

Share us to have an opinion

write the pictures of your thoughts don't paint on water look for me

When you find me, let`s look for others.

Talk to everyone, don't hide your feelings talking means life for every memory and it is a power that builds your resolve.

Speaking is freedom that makes your mind free.

Flower No. 5 in the garden of ideas

Why are you far from me?

I am waiting for you.

I can't live alone.

You are all one.

and I love you all.

Let's meet, and make life as we like it to be.

Can you decide who you are?

Tell me when will you be?

I am a prisoner between myself and me

I will be free

because I saw the air free

I don't follow my likes, because it's like me unless they were building, I will participate them.

Flower No. 7 in the garden of ideas

How old are you between inhalation and exhalation?

How many steps do you walk between every look?

How long do you sleep between a thought and another?

And when will you look at tomorrow, to plan for tomorrow?

I am waiting to see you shine like the moon.

Congratulations, you can read

Congratulations, you can understand what you read

Congratulations, you keep reading

Congratulations, you can smile

Congratulations, you are thinking

Congratulations, I knew that you would succeed because you started thinking

In my garden, among the flowers, there is a fork that was born in my silence

You can't pluck it

It is about to be old but it won't hurt because I spoke

it was hurting when my silence was a story

Flower No. 10 in the garden of ideas

If your friends were a book be the thoughts of it and if they were a sea

be the ship

if they were a galaxy

be a moon

Kindle your energy, and hone your determination to be a manager

Flower No. 11 in the garden of ideas

The snow is lightening in the darkness of the earth's poles,

The color around it does not resemble the colors

It is beautiful as the beauty should be.

There are no words I can describe it with.

It is your mind and your thoughts.

Fill your thoughts with that which benefits the life of your mind

I sat down counting the stars one by one a cloud passed, so I came back to count again repeating one and then another after a while, one of the stars began to shine as if it was saying "I am different" as if it wanted me to figure it out alone not to add it to the count of the others because it was enlightening because it was a princess and when I meditated the reason it was right

so, be a prince, you will progress.

Let everyone watch your light overflowing with those around you with the good.

The meeting is over this night we determined to make a decision so we sat down and spoke, drank and ate,

then we looked for results and approaches and finished talking.

We won, and smiled

Because we made the decision, it's the meeting to be together and engage in dialogue

however, without grudge though, without wounds

It is the meeting, for the society to be a beautiful.

Our garden is green it has bright ideas

their houses are flowers our companions are trees their ideas are minds altruism is their essence our pens are human being its ink is predestination and hopes bring them together our dreams are to meet its essence is an appeal and brings everyone together our book is lines its lines spin

leaving trace

Flower No. 15 in the garden of ideas

I will sleep until yesterday, to wake up in remembrance

I'll sit in my thoughts

I will write my secret in the mirage

I will scream silently

I will tell you a letter that you will not see, to hear me.

I'll call you with my heart, so answer.

Let's work, life is building.

Flower No. 16 in the garden of ideas

Traditions, customs and human natures, are augmented without searching them

We collect them, mix them, and save what is revived

We draw it, scatter it, and keep it

Between yesterday and a new day we meet

Our purpose is good because of its goodness we feed it.

All that we do not have good from it, we hide.

Flower No. 17 in the garden of ideas

It's a beautiful morning

It's a beautiful evening

It's a beautiful day

Because I live in it

I still have a chance to make myself

I'm still breathing and thinking

I'm still conscious

Flower No. 18 in the garden of ideas

I learned with mates a lesson and I wrote it in my mind it's a long lesson

like time in which all beauty

despite the pain

that's the love

lesson of love

for all human beings

Flower No. 19 in the garden of ideas

We met again

the eyes met

I spoke newly to let the hearts meet and I succeeded when I determined and I succeeded because I thought the meeting was fruitful.

Seeking knowledge is not a mistake but ignorance is and no harm in making a mistake but in repeating it and no harm in a friend but in the choice and the mirror it is you, so work with a beautiful image

Flower No. 21 in the garden of ideas

I loved traveling without my body and I saw them all wherever I was

they were with me wherever I go

because they were loyal

I don't forget my friends no matter how far we go, by the reason of study, work or life.

Flower No. 22 in the garden of ideas

Whenever I grab a book, I think it's a garden and the pages are my comrades

I play between the lines when I read

I meditate the words to be wasted between its lines and call an emergency they are beautiful ideas

I'm melting, help me!

and when they came, they saw life everyone smiles.

Flower No. 23 in the garden of ideas

Yesterday we were talking we disagreed, and then smiled we smiled and then disagreed then we left to come back today to talk

because speech is life.

Flower No. 24 in the garden of ideas

Don't sleep too much because the dreams are raining when you wake up, the journey is over the truth is that we are swimming in the pool of hope

making the beauty

As we work, life continues

Flower No. 25 in the garden of ideas

They said it's freedom

I looked for it, but found myself in a big prison

But it's freedom to be as I want

though, those around me want me as they will

And because it's freedom

I will be as I want to be.

Flower No. 26 in the garden of ideas

I spoke to the mirror when I saw my picture

I said to myself, in the mirror

Don't think about how do they look at you

And look to yourself with respect

It does not matter to be beautiful with two faces

It is enough to feel the beauty of my sincerity

Flower No. 27 in the garden of ideas

Winter has come

But the heat is severe it ignites between my ribs

We don't see the sun

Despite the rain and snow tears descending

longing and nostalgia

Love and moan

Perhaps tomorrow is prettier

I see in it human beings every one draws a smile without causing pain.

We are human beings

We are all one

Our home is the humanity.

Flower No. 28 in the garden of ideas

I won a lot

I didn't tell anyone because I can't share anyone the profit

It is a friend

his name is Book.

very strange

it never gets bored of me or get angry very loyal

I tried it a lot

It didn't hurt

Companionable, didn't bother me

It is a small treasure

And it has a big profit

Let's rest after studying

And after work

Let's look for the "ego" among "them"

Let us reconcile and shake hands

Let's travel in people's hearts and contact minds

Let's write experiments and make tomorrow

Our steps were small

Our steps became young

Our steps became strong because we planted

then we harvested

We have instilled love

We reaped lovers

Flower No. 31 in the garden of ideas

Drunkenness of mind is one of instincts and the demise of its ability to concentrate takes away success

When thought is a ruler it makes distinction

Our words are like fruits

Let's make it taste good

Our faces are the address of our treasures.

Let's smile with the wounds

Who is with us, is like us.

Let us love everyone, they will love us.

Flower No. 33 in the garden of ideas

Our works are images

Let`s decorate it with the best colors

I see everyone in one eye

Thousands of eyes see me

I would like to make my image in their eyes as the most beautiful picture I have ever seen

Keep smiling

and be informed that speech makes you comfortable.

Your age is going on your heart beats continuously, your eyes are travelling to all around and your thought is traveling everywhere and time is passing by continuously work even when you are standing make your standing a march to make yourself

Success and failure are friends that don't like each other they may meet

When your friend is success be careful not to lose it by protecting him and when failure is your friend don't think about staying with him but think about thousands of ways to move away from him so its effects don't stay around you

Flower No. 48 in the garden of ideas

Do you love others?

Do they like you?

Do you hate others?

Do they hate you?

Who are you?

And who are they

Is any of us different from the other?

Does anyone have two heads?

Or four hands?

Does anyone have two minds?

Or two hearts?

We are all the same structure!

And features

Let us all be one

Flower No. 49 in the garden of ideas

Look behind you, not by your eyes!

But with your mind!

You will see the past as pictures

Look in front of you!

With your thoughts

you will see your dreams make the most beautiful pictures because you're the engineer

Strangers came to us then we became the strangers

So no one knows when he will be stranger

Therefore, do good to every stranger, because your balance stays in the business bank, and it leaves an action.

and we all know that, action and reaction are equal and opposite, the reaction will come back to you.

then you will find someone who pays back for your good actions

because you deserve it.

Flower No. 51 in the garden of ideas

Our memories are encounters

Our encounters are words

Our words are compasses

Our decisions are looks

Our looks are friends

Our friendships are industries

Our industries are our success.

So, you succeed

keys and locks

it will be enough for everyone only one key:

The will

its captain is the mind striking the waves of despair to attain success and achieve the wishes

Then you will be our king

Everyone loves you, gives you the priority, invites you, asks about you, and is just with you

Because you have preceded everyone, be a king

Flower No. 58 in the garden of ideas

My story is lonely

My thought is stray

My deed is good

My saying is rational

I painted the time

I put safety

I gave affection

I wrote the guarantee

I was born with my thought Deserted my cunning and I chose my thankfulness in order to get my proudness

Flower No. 59 in the garden of ideas

Your beauty is your tongue and your say the declaration and silent is words

full of love

Our eyes have spoken, participated, and made others hear we pronounced life

the letters had breathed what do you want from me?

Don't go away from me

Flower No. 60 in the garden of ideas

Oh boredom

I repeat the hope and the same work

my day is full of worry and my night is sleepless it burned my heart

we have enough depression let's say a joke

for our heart to be pleased come on to travel

Flower No. 61 in the garden of ideas

Don`'t be extinguished and don't be old

don't be broken and don't be delicate don't retire

and don't be a fire

walk gently

be courteous

and make the light

in every way

Wash and perfume yourself for the mirror to see you because they will see you as it will see you and come closer to see your shadow let it be upright because the works still have an impact so let your picture be beautiful and your nature as well because you're one
Don't have two faces

Don`'t follow the pitfalls of others before you fix your imperfections and whenever you are perfect you can laugh as you wish and the plate of caution of other`s mistakes

don't approach them

think before you work to keep your work good

Flower No. 64 in the garden of ideas

My hobby is strange

my wish is fantastic

I'm looking for a hobby to be my goal

Should I be a doctor or a beloved player probably an engineer

a teacher, or a tutor

or a writer

Or vice

they are all beautiful where I can be noble

They are all make me a life

Flower No. 65 in the garden of ideas

Sunrise and dew

a story that never ends

Rain continues as long as the seas and the land and the trees and all that we can see

We are all partners

we will keep it

our ancestors had planted we are what we sow for our successors to find our water is pure

it gives us life to know the hygiene and study culture

our environment is our homes

Flower No. 66 in the garden of ideas

Whatever you are, you are beautiful because nobody other than you, has your features

Your image, your voice and your eyes

There are no two, that look like you

Maybe you have a wish to be in another body, you like it to be yours others wish to be like you so why would you like to renounce the beauty your contentment is a treasure and your self-confidence is a success

Set your goal and make yourself, by achieving it

You are creative

No one knows your truth, but you.

Your nature is the effects of your environment and the genetics

work to evaluate it

To be beautiful and agree with your appearance do not be a prisoner of modesty let your modesty only while offending everyone deserves dignity though offended

perhaps he has a reason

It is weird that we know our character

Weird that we insist it and not be patient about offense maybe we can exercise to pardon those who offended

Flower No. 68 in the garden of ideas

Let's be rich

we consult, plan and agree we decide the partnership and distribution of tasks and agreed

and the first steps to collect the capital and when we started

we all learned that the richest one among us his capital was his mind and whatever he loses, he is a winner because he knows how to stand up again

I learned a lesson to work with my mind

Flower No. 69 in the garden of ideas

We sat down and asked

Where is the Bank of Hearts?

and he asked, the questioner and what's in it?

we said, the wound`s cabinets we kept wondering

but we differed

then we agreed

it's only one address he is only one person it is him, and no one else the treasurer of gifts gives you a word to live with it forever it is the lamp of life

Flower No. 70 in the garden of ideas

Don`'t be in a hurry otherwise you will slip don`'t be in a hurry even when you are making your decision

so as not to tumble speed is a mistake

causes you to lose the right way speed is like a tree, its fruits are the remorse, blame and nothingness except in repulsion of the harm in this case, work quickly, not to make an impact or achieve stable harm

Work with the balance to know your destiny

Flower No. 71 in the garden of ideas

Despair is torment

Don`t wear its clothes

Don't approach its door

Don't accept its companions

It is a gloomy disease

It's a strange feeling

Be a doctor

for every friend in your words and the smile

like a floral breeze

let everybody smile and the hearts to live

don't accept to die

there is still hope

Flower No. 72 in the garden of ideas

My clothes are many their colors are bright its appearance is exciting its secrets are hidden carefully its strength is from my home our morals are our clothes our words are our foods our sons are our buildings our power is our parents our homeland is our paradise its soil is our bodies and its water is our blood

So how much should we love it?

none look like it so let's build it

Flower No. 73 in the garden of ideas

My father and my grandfather the old story

I see them far away

During the feast I see them their minds and my mind close yet far should I be like them?

and have their love

And how then after us our sons and their generation like us they see us as we had seen whom were before us we love everyone

everyone loves us

Let us not waste our love

Flower No. 74 in the garden of ideas

Your words are your address your elegance is your tongue and love is your gifts

If you are that, it`s ok

If he is someone else, follow him

How many proverbs do we read?

How many actions do we look at

to be an example for all?

generations read us an idea everyone has one nature and the mind is not the same

we write actions

my folk will see it beautifully to be our wealth

Flower No. 75 in the garden of ideas

I am an orphan

You are an orphan

But we are different

Maybe you know him

Maybe he knows you

Perhaps both know each others

I exist

therefore I exist

let me make myself a title to be a father

I mean a human being let the world see me as a world and my existence as human being for me to be, and for you to be brothers, in the good

Flower No. 76 in the garden of ideas

Who are your relatives?

who are your friends?

they are a few!

who is the closest?

he is one!

he is the friend and he is the relative your friend is your relative your relative is your friend your friend is that whom believes you and you are your own friend his example is yours his perfection is your perfection

Flower No. 77 in the garden of ideas

I have got a treasure made it a symbol

I'm looking for an investment

I sat down and consulted and among thousand, I was running around then I came back as a prisoner afraid to decide

because it's a big treasure and all is mine

my life there is real life

It is everyone's love

In their hearts is my love

My great treasure and to win

I gather them in my heart

Flower No. 78 in the garden of ideas

Are you weird?

Not in actions

but in your presence wherever you are don't be weird

because you are the world don't be strange

you should have a lot of lovers and friends

because you're weird

if you are not a lover

there is no life for us without affection

except with a friend

Flower No. 79 in the garden of ideas

He is envious

he has a great vileness traitorous full of staleness can't be relative or a lover

his vanity is strange and his say is suspicious and offends to everyone so, his abandonment is beneficial his nature is repugnant betrays without fulfillment don't meet him and erase his echo

don't see him and choose someone else

Flower No. 80 in the garden of ideas

We plan to travel

where we should go and with whom can we talk my purposes are so far as the lines of my poems to get to the moon

yes, even with rain

yes, for traveling with danger

I have a friend, and I am not bored despite the distress, he didn't abandoned my journey is as a river in a riverbed my life without headquarters even with the destiny will the ship stood on the orbit there is no escape, no refuge

Flower No. 81 in the garden of ideas

for how long

you will blame?

did he come

that looks like the boy with this sign?

Strong and brave and the enemy in front of him

Intrepid and bold and veiled

his tongue is his sword his patience is his reign a strong boy and like him a strong reality and the right thing he set up

Flower No. 82 in the garden of ideas

I walk without feelings

I turn with my eyesight among the garden

as if I am like a breeze

I go around like a river

In its graceful footsteps sipping the feelings

In my soul an impact of its delicate flowers

It's my wishes

It flashes like the moon

It`s deep hopes

It's my affection

despite what in humans

rain to creation

Flower No. 83 in the garden of ideas

Between my shadow and me

I looked for myself

I didn't find me

What I am

and I came back to see how is my shadow, and me?

what are we?

and I came out of them

I saw both without myself

isn't

who I am

I returned and collected myself, my shadow and me to be!!

Flower No. 84 in the garden of ideas

Flower No. 86 in the garden of ideas

The volcano

burns all around it

dropping everywhere

scary and burning

no words to describe it

It is like longing to whom we love

it burns the corners

it flows in the blood

we fear the aftermath

we can't wait with it to water the longings by reunion and leave for those we love to see them and let them see us and it will be our feast

Flower No. 87 in the garden of ideas

I will tell my story then I will hear from you all the stories

I'll be the first

then follow me with words at first it was a journey but a long one

I stopped on that day to be a story

it's my life

since the day I was born mix of tear and smile but today I am different very happy

because you are with me we all love each other

Do we write secrets or just a smile and why do we hide the tears and keep feelings silent it is you and I, doing the same, smile and cry

weep and smile

then we meet again

another day

we don't forget the memories they are pictures with us there will be feelings of all colors

sweet and sour

my experiences benefit me

Flower No. 89 in the garden of ideas

What is your height and weight?

what is your color?

Do you see me?

because I see you!

and your color is like water, in it there is life your weight is your knowledge and your height is your effects that remained

I read you as you read me with your eyes I see you with your breath I live because they are my impact you read it and when you see me

I swim in your mind to be as you like

do you believe that I love you?

I wish for you what I wish for myself

I wanted to be the best of all

I wanted to be perfect that means being better than me

Do you know how much I love you?

I am waiting for your action to love me as I love you and on our land

we sprinkle love and sow love and reap love

to be a lesson read by the student

so love will live

Flower No. 91 in the garden of ideas

whimsical

really strange

why we disagree

and how we get together how can I change

for myself

despite my wounds

for myself and for others then I can change to others

Like me, they confessed they abused

for themselves, and for others this is the beginning

Just decide to start

Flower No. 92 in the garden of ideas

They said that I am cocky because they are not like me

I asked them

how not to be cocky

they said

and how can we be like you they envy me because I'm not like them

I love them

even though they don't like me

and some of them hate me because I'm cocky believe it because they don't look like me

Flower No. 93 in the garden of ideas

Many hours

I sat down writing to choose an answer for something to be with me don't leave me

don't betray me

don't fool me

with me everywhere

even in my travels

day and night

doesn't bother me

doesn't make me tired keeps my secret

and chose from thousands answer? it's the book!

Flower No. 94 in the garden of ideas

Serious decision

I don't announce it

it's a secret

between I and me

I saw my mind

it's all a mess

why do I look?

what can I do?

I have a pen so I decided make a war

where I can win and I'm the commander

to win

At one table

we all sat down

for one topic

we have dialogue

we did not agree

we did not disagree

the meeting was repeated then we went

when we came back the words were repeated in another color then we decided a statement we made success conversation language brought us together

Flower No. 96 in the garden of ideas

I learned driving in my village

and in the city

I became a fly

it was an anecdote about flowers and the secret in colors scattered in the lines and among them I fly my mind is a captain its paddle is big because she's a princess my heart is a captain

I picked it with my soul my soul is a title

Flower No. 97 in the garden of ideas

How beautiful you are

yes, Dad

in everything

because you're my father and yes, brother

because you're my brother and yes, my friend

because you're my friend and yes, Master

because you are my teacher

because you're my mother and my teacher and my beloved land

Flower No. 98 in the garden of ideas

Are you a man or an angel?

I have seen in you all the beauty

I can't explain

perhaps I don't care whatever I said

perhaps they blame me they think I have exaggerated but I hope that my words will be translated you are not an angel because you're the finest because you are a human being its formulation is exquisite its manners are high why don't I love you?

all my parts are obedient to you

Flower No. 99 in the garden of ideas

You and I

they all are partners and among them

I have chosen you to be me and be you do you agree?

think with my mind and I adore with your heart and work with my hand and weep with your eyes you are my wound

I am close to you

my love was made by the breeze of your longing

Flower No. 100 in the garden of ideas

The last flower in my garden

my image is my voice and my girlfriend is one hundred flowers

In my trailer

like a necklace

for my love

it's the Earth

my love

and you are on it

like the seas

my affection

you have a gift from me
